

ANNOUNCEMENT

Apply for your pension on time

The UAPF reminds that persons who have pension savings in the UAPF, formed at the expense of compulsory pension contributions and compulsory occupational pension contributions, and have reached the generally established retirement age (men upon reaching 63 years of age, women upon reaching 60 years of age in 2021 with an annual increase in the retirement age of women for six months until reaching 63 years of age in 2027), as well as persons with disabilities of the first and second groups, if the disability is established for an indefinite period, are entitled to receive pension payments from the UAPF according to the established schedule

To get pension benefits assigned from the UAPF in connection with reaching the retirement age, beneficiaries must promptly contact the subdivisions of the State Corporation "Government for Citizens" (PSC) at their place of residence. Pension benefits are assigned from the date of application and are made until the exhaustion of pension savings.

To get pension benefits assigned from the UAPF in connection with the establishment of disability of the first and second groups, benefits must contact the regional branches of the UAPF or through the UAPF website (www.enpf.kz) with an electronic digital signature.

We would like to draw your attention to the fact that documents in the PSC, together with the application for the appointment of a pension, can be submitted 10 days before reaching the retirement age. In this regard, we ask women with a date of birth through December 31 (inclusive) and reaching 60 years of age this year to contact the PSC by the end of 2021, since from January 1, 2022, the retirement age for women increases to 60.5 years.
