ANNOUNCEMENT

DR FILHON: The carrot is to motivate employed people to self-register and contribute to social security systems. And how do we do this?

We continue to post the most interesting interviews with guests of the high-level international round table "Prospects for the development of mandatory funded and mixed pension systems" held in Almaty, in which leading foreign and Kazakh experts took part. This time you can get acquainted with the answers of Dr Guillaume Filhon, senior project manager of the International Social Security Association (Switzerland), to pressing questions regarding the development of pension systems. He will talk about ways to involve workers in new employment formats in the pension system and the use of information and communication technologies in this process.

Watch the interview on the БЖЗҚ ΕΗΠΦ YouTube channel!

Let us recall that earlier the President of the International Social Security Association (ISSA), Mohammed Azman spoke about the problems of financial sustainability of social security systems and ways to solve them, about changes in employment formats and the provision of social protection to a person from birth to death, and much more.
